3.1 Tees Heritage Trust

I attended my first meeting of the Tees Heritage Trust on 14th November. I thought members would appreciate the overview of their aims and objectives this time. Tees Heritage is a registered charity and company limited-by-guarantee formed in 1982. They aim to rescue, conserve and find new uses for neglected historic buildings and sites in the Tees Valley area for the benefit of the local community. Their projects are good for the local heritage and economy, turning derelict buildings into assets. The foundation for each conservation project is a sound understanding of the site's history and significance. The Trust continues to look after the buildings in its care, to inform others about the significance and value of historic buildings and assesses potential new projects.

The 3 projects discussed at the meeting were Tocketts Mill, Saltburn Valley Gardens and Kirkleatham.

Received from Councillor Fairley.

4.0 Conclusions/recommendations

4.1 Members representing the authority on other bodies are requested to provide updates to the relevant Scrutiny & Improvement Committee as appropriate.
